

2 Redlands High students receive awards for volunteer service

Posted: Monday, June 12, 2017 1:40 p.m. PDT

Kiran Rawtani and Hailey Stuck of Redlands High School received honorable mention awards for more than 500 hours of volunteer service at this spring's Teens Make a Difference awards ceremony at the Inland Center Mall.

The ceremony recognized local high school students for volunteer service at places such as libraries, hospitals and schools and for nonprofit and community-based organizations.

The ceremony recognized 53,821.55 hours of service volunteered by 1,141 high school students from 11 schools in the past year. All students with 25 hours or more received awards.

Estrella Moreno of San Bernardino High School who won the "Top Dawg" award for volunteering 854 hours through Dignity Health at St. Bernardine Medical Center, at the Family Focus Center, where she assisted with daily routines, special-event projects and monitoring youth who attended the after-school program.

Top School Award went to Rialto High School for more than 13,000 hours volunteered by more than 375 students.

Teens Make a Difference is a program of Inland Center Mall, Arrowhead United Way's Volunteers United program and Inland Empire United Way's Volunteer Initiative, ieVolunteers.

Source: Inland Center Mall via Redlands Daily Facts