REDLANDS, Ca – Citrus Valley High School celebrated its 503 graduates with a commencement ceremony Wednesday at the Redlands Bowl.

Graduation season began late last month, with Redlands Unified School District officials recognizing the “well-rounded” Class of 2017.

In total, 1,730 district graduates earned high school diplomas.

Miki Inbody, assistant superintendent of educational services, called this year’s graduation statistics amazing.

“Whether it is a career or college, we’re excited to see what we help put in place,” she said. “It’s really exciting to see how well-rounded the students are.”
