

Morning Announcements Week of September 13th , 2021

- It is time to apply for CJSF, California Junior Scholastic Federation. CJSF is a national honor society that recognizes students across the United States for their accomplishment in academics, citizenship, and community service. The requirements are having a combination of As and B's on your last report card, No D's or F's and no N's or U's in citizenship. CJSF is not a time-consuming organization, you just need to apply. Look for the requirements and the Google form application in your 8th Grade Google Classroom. Remember to attach a copy of your 7th grade 2nd semester report card to the Google Form. We are waving the $10 dues again this semester due to the pandemic. Applications need to be in by Sept 30th.
- Today is our first Home Volleyball Game versus Cope. Girls will start at 3:15pm on the back field. Boys game will begin immediately following the Girls game. Good Luck to both teams!
- Tuesday, September 14th is Election day. Our school will be a polling location. Community members will be using K-2. Please show our community how we exemplify Respect, Kindness and Effort in our actions during the day.
- Wednesday, September 15th is a minimum day. Dismissal will be at 12:40 pm.
- Thursday, September 16th and Friday, September 17th will be Make up picture Days. Pictures will be taken during PE.
- After school Homework Help will begin next week on Tuesday, Sept. 21st and Thursday, Sept. 23rd from 3:15-4:15pm. Information will be emailed home to parents/guardians and it will be in your grade level google classroom. Students must return a form to the counseling center to be able to attend. A late bus will be provided for students.
- Students, be mindful of the language that you use while on campus, and how it might offend, language such as the "N" word or words that can be perceived as discriminatory towards our LGBTQIA community is not permitted. I appreciate all student's effort and I am thankful for your mindfulness in advance.
- Students the tardy music means that you have two minutes to get to class. Please don't get caught in the tardy sweep. Lunch detentions will be issued this week.
- Students don't get caught riding dirty on these Moore streets. Ensure you have a pass when out of class during instructional time.
- Monarch family, we are proud to announce the start of Moore Middle School's Black Student Union. For more information check out the BSU table at next week's club fair on Thursday, September 23rd. n BSU is open to all students but focuses on promoting unity, equity, leadership, academic excellence, and civic responsibility among students of color. BSU seeks to bring awareness and a new level of consciousness about what it means to be African American today, as well as to encourage positive racial relations on campus by promoting mutual respect and understanding.
