GENERAL

1. If you like to write, here is your chance for fame (and maybe a Starbucks gift card) - Writer's Block Club is accepting submissions for our Fall Writing contest - poetry and short fiction on family, holidays, celebrations, and the season. Share it from YOUR school email to pat\_molnar@redlandsschools.net.
2. If you would like to start a new club for 2nd semester, please come to an informational meeting on Tuesday, Nov. 19 @ lunch in Room 41. Only brand NEW clubs for 2nd semester need to attend this meeting.

ATHLETICS

1. Any 9th-11th grade students who are not currently in the football program who want to play Football next year please attend a mandatory meeting at lunch on Monday, November 18th in Room R 2.

COUNSELING

1. Counselors on the Quad - Got a quick question or want to just say hello to a counselor? Stop by the Counselor on the Quad table by attendance on Mondays, Wednesdays or Fridays during lunch. Two counselors will be available to help you and offer information. Mr. Chanure and Mrs. Kusko will be there on Mondays, Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Davenport on Wednesdays, and Mrs. Walsh and Mrs. Elgin will be there on Fridays. As always, the other counselors will be available at lunch to see students in the Counseling Office. Stop by to chat!
2. Seniors applying to colleges on the Common App or to schools requiring a letter of recommendation, please be aware of your deadlines. The last day to request a letter of recommendation from your counselor for a January 15 deadline is December 2. Remember, counselors will be on Thanksgiving and Winter Break during the same days as students. Make an appointment through Mrs. Avila in the Counseling Office to be interviewed by your counselor. Bring a copy of your resume or brag sheet to the meeting. Please plan ahead to give your counselor enough time to write a high quality letter of recommendation to support your application.

SCHOLARSHIPS
