SCHOLARSHIPS

1. # 73_Future Leaders Scholarships. Leadership Initiatives is excited to announce that we have 500 Future Leaders Scholarships to award to students that show special academic promise and leadership potential. We are looking for students who will be in grades 9-12 in the fall of 2020, are in good standing, and have a deep interest in law, medicine, or business. While academic performance is important to our Scholarship Committee, the most significant factor is a student's passion and potential. By nominating qualified students for this once in a lifetime experience, you are demonstrating your commitment to their personal development and encouraging them to follow their dreams. We are reaching out to you to nominate outstanding Redlands High School Speech & Debate students for the Leadership Initiatives Youth Development Programs at Georgetown University. Students you nominate will receive a $1,000 scholarship to put towards the program of their choice and priority consideration. We will contact the student directly with more information and an invitation to apply. If you are interested in this scholarship see your counselor for the nomination process.
