

Blackhawk Bulletin

Monday, March 30th 2020

Athletics this Week:

Date	Athletic Event	Dismiss	Leave	Game
------	----------------	---------	-------	------

General Information (New items are preceded by an *)

"CV is the most Talented School" talent show on April 10th. K. McGrath

Club Notice

Spanish Club meeting TOMORROW during lunch in B-5. We will discuss our upcoming field trip. J. Rivera

Science Club meeting TOMORROW at lunch in Mrs. Rooney's room. S. Rooney

Link Crew: 10th and 11th graders, do you want to be a leader on campus, help support 9th graders, host amazing social events and earn community service? Join Link Crew next year! Come to one of the meetings, TOMORROW or April 1st at lunch in E-148. You must attend one of the meetings in order to obtain an application. L. Perry

Senior Section

Seniors: Review sessions on April 1st and April 2nd after school in A-114, in preparation for the California science test. We will go through an online practice test to get you familiar with the question format and the topics covered. Tutors will be available. See Mr. Puraci in E-162 for more information. S. Puraci

Graduation Speakers: Interested in speaking at the graduation ceremony for the Class of 2020? Sign up at Mr. Marcell's office. The deadline for submitting your speech is April 20th, auditions will be April 27th in A-114 after school. Speeches must be appropriate and no more than five minutes. C. Marcell

Senior Artists: Interested in submitting digital artwork for the program cover for the Class of 2020 graduation or free-hand artwork for the program cover for the senior award ceremony? Submit your artwork to Mr. Marcell's office no later than Friday. C. Marcell

Grad Nite tickets are on sale TOMORROW and Wednesday for the final two days of ticket sales at the textbook room windows at lunch! Do not miss your chance to attend Gard Nite 2020! Packet must be complete before purchasing your ticket. Packets are available on the Citrus Valley website or across from Mr. Marcell's office. Packet must be complete before purchasing your ticket. There will be no tickets available after April 1st, no exceptions. A. Gruber

Student Store

Counseling Center

Dual Enrollment: Current 10th and 11th graders, interested in taking a free Crafton Hills College dual enrollment class this summer or fall? Come to one of the meetings on April 7th at 7:30am or April 8th at 2:30pm in A-114. New and returning students are required to attend. If who pass a dual enrollment class you will earn high school elective credit and college credit. D. Farley

Career Center

Activities

Sterling a Night into the Roaring 20s: Prom 2020 will be at the LA Union Station on April 18th from 7pm-11pm. A train will take you to and from prom. Tickets are $90 w/asb, $95 w/out until April 10th and $95 w/asb, $100 w/out from April 13th to April 16th. C. Galloway

Sports