CHAIN LINKS QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Everybody can be great...because anybody can serve. You don't have to have a college degree to serve. You don't have to make your subject and verb agree to serve. You only need a heart full of grace...a soul motivated by love. Don't hesitate...be great today through service to others."

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.; Pastor, Civil Rights Activist, Author

CHAIN LINKS WORD OF THE WEEK

Missive (n): A letter or note that is often long or official; a sincere note or letter

Synonyms: Note; letter; e-mail; memorandum; dispatch

He included a short missive to his mother in her Valentine's card.

The college student received yet another lengthy missive from her father.

Melissa always looked forward to receiving the good-natured missives from her grandfather.

Attention 8th grade girls: Kimberly Juniors is now accepting membership for the 2019-2020 year. Kimberly Juniors is a 4-year educational program that provides young ladies of high school age the skills needed to function successfully in modern society and to gracefully involve themselves in the community. A parent or guardian must submit a letter of intent to begin the membership process. For more information, please visit our website kimberlyjuniors.org or visit us on Facebook.

7th & 8th Graders- TOMORROW is the deadline for CJSF applications. They will not be accepted late! Please make sure you pick up a Disneyland & Tshirt envelope when you turn in the application. If you have any questions, please see Mrs. Jackson or Ms. Center

RSCL's Soccer Players: We will play our regularly scheduled game at Cope MS TODAY. Students will be dismissed at the end of 5th hour (1:17), for this away game. The girls game will begin at 3:15. Games will be 30 minute halves. Boy's game will begin at approximately 4:25. Players don't forget your uniform, shin guards, cleats. Be sure to bring a jacket, it will be cold.
