RSCL STUDENT-ATHLETE CODE OF CONDUCT

Interscholastic athletic competition should demonstrate high standards of ethics and sportsmanship and promote the development of good character and other important life skills. The highest potential of sports is achieved when participants are committed to “Pursuing Victory with Honor” according to six core principles of trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring and good citizenship (the “Six Pillars of Character”). This Code applies to all student-athletes involved in interscholastic sports in California. I understand that, in order to participate in athletics, I must act in accord with the following:

Six Pillars of Character

TRUSTWORTHINESS - Be worthy of trust in all I do.

RESPECT – Treat all people with respect all the time and require the same of other student-athletes.

RESPONSIBILITY - Be a student first and commit to getting the best education I can.

FAIRNESS - Live up to high standards of fair play, be open-minded; always be willing to listen and learn.

CARING – Demonstrate concern for others; never intentionally injure any player or engage in reckless behavior that might cause injury to myself or others.

CITIZENSHIP - Play by the rules; maintain a thorough knowledge of and abide by all applicable game and competition rules.

I have read and understand the requirements of this Code of Conduct. I understand that I am expected to perform according to this code both during school and athletic activities and that there may be consequences if I do not. These consequences may include suspension of game(s), removal from the team or other disciplinary actions taken by the school’s administration.
