Attention all 8th graders: The meeting for football is cancelled today, but if students are interested come get a flyer from coach Vazquez.

Attention 7th Graders: Are you interested in traveling to Washington DC next spring break 2023 with your friends? If so, come get an information flyer from Ms. Stark in C-8! You can also send an email to ashley\_stark@redlands.k12.ca.us for more information. *This is not a school or district sponsored trip.

Attention 6th and 7th graders: are you interested in drama? Would you like to take a drama class next year? If yes, email Ms. Cooke, your counselor, or stop by I-26 to get on the list! No prior experience is necessary.

Attention Cope Students! It is Mental Health Week. This week is celebrated in May every year! Student Mental Health Week is a week set aside to recognize the importance mental health plays in students' lives, their experience in school, and in their future. It also serves to remind us of the damage that can be done when mental health stigma exists. Myth or Fact? People struggling with mental health concerns sometimes don't reach out because they are worried about what others will think about them. This is a Fact! It is easier to keep our mental health concerns to ourselves. However, opening up and seeking help can make the journey so much better! Reach out to a friend, family member, or a trusted adult at school such as your counselor to talk if you're struggling with your mental health!

Attention 8th graders! If you are attending the 8th-grade formal, the dropoff location is at the Alumni Greek Theatre located behind the Hall of Letters at the University of Redlands. A map can be found on the Minga app. Remember, you must arrive within 30 minutes of the start of the event, and you will need to present your ID to be admitted. See Mrs. Clark in H22 or Mrs. Severin in M64 if you have any questions.
